LSR1100 - Introduction to Limited Scope Radiography and Patient Care

Credits:	3 (2/1/0)
Description:	This course explores the role of limited scope radiographers. Foundational principles that address ethical and legal aspects, professionalism and interpersonal communication skills are presented. The course also includes patient care and monitoring techniques, medical emergencies, universal precautions and infection control processes.
Prerequisites:	• BIOL2260 • COMM1140 • HLTH1116
Corequisites:	• LSR1120 • LSR1140 • LSR1160
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Explain the importance of professional behavior by limited scope radiographers. 2. Simulate interpersonal communication skills with patients, health care team members and others (e.g. physicians, general public, etc.) in the lab setting. 3. Discuss the importance of abiding by ethical and legal principles in health care. 4. Explain why confidentiality practices are important in health care. 5. Demonstrate routine and emergency patient care and monitoring techniques. 6. Recognize medical emergencies and traumatic injuries. 7. Identify and practice universal and infection control procedures. 8. Manipulate radiographic equipment and accessories during patient care procedures. 9. Perform patient transfer techniques while using proper body mechanics.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.