

ADMM2255 - Evaluation and Management Coding Practices

| Credits:                        | 1 (0.5/0.5/0)   |
|---------------------------------|---|
| Description:                    | This course will teach the students to appropriately assign evaluation and management codesbased on the physician documentation using 1995, 1997 and 2021 E/M Coding guidelines.Students will abstract information from healthcare documentation and assign appropriatelevels of service.   |
| Prerequisites:                  | • ADMM1152  |
| Corequisites:                   |   |
| Pre/Corequisites * : |   |
| Competencies:                   | <ol> <li>Identify the importance of documentation and the ability to use Medicare E/M guidelines.</li> <li>Identify, contrast, and explain these sections of healthcare records; history of presentillness, review of systems, and general vs. specific physical examination.</li> <li>Utilize the three elements of medical decision making to determine the overall medicaldecision-making complexity.</li> <li>Explain key components to properly assign evaluation and management codes.</li> <li>Explain documentation requirements for proper assignment of evaluation and managementcodes.</li> </ol> |
| MnTC goal areas:                | None  |

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.