

ACCT1124 - Spreadsheet Applications

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course provides students with in-depth coverage of a spreadsheet application as used in a business setting. Students should be familiar with Windows and word processing.
Prerequisites:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• BUS1100</li> </ul>
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of the use of algebraic formulas for formula entry and auditing.</li> <li>2. Demonstrate critical thinking skills in gathering, formatting and disseminating data.</li> <li>3. Use relative, mixed and absolute cell references in formulas and functions.</li> <li>4. Demonstrate in-depth knowledge of financial, statistical and logical functions to calculate, report and analyze business data.</li> <li>5. Create and format charts.</li> <li>6. Consolidate data across multiple worksheets and workbooks.</li> <li>7. Import and format data from external sources.</li> <li>8. Use data analysis tools including data tables, pivot tables and charts.</li> <li>9. Use advanced filtering and sorting techniques.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.