

AMST2220 - Ignition Systems

Credits:	3 (2/1/0)
Description:	This course will cover the operation of ignition systems. Students will learn how various ignition systems work so they will have the understanding to diagnose and repair ignition problems.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:	• AMST1101 • AMST1111
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	 Exhibit safety precautions and professionalism. Interpret service information. Explain and test ignition primary and secondary circuits using a multimeter. Perform ignition service and maintenance on various vehicles. Explain and test using a lab scope to diagnosis primary and secondary circuits. Perform scan tool checks on ignition components using a variety of vehicles. Perform timing adjustments where applicable. Interpret diagnostic flow charts aiding in ignition repairs. Diagnose and explain computer-controlled ignition systems.
MnTC goal areas:	None

^{*}Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.