

ARCH2220 - Specification Writing for Construction

Credits:	3 (1/2/0)
Description:	This course covers the implementation and inclusion of specifications, construction materials and finishes into a set of construction documents.
Prerequisites:	• None
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Identify the divisions within the current Construction Specifications Institute format.</li> <li>Identify common subdivisions with each division.</li> <li>Create specifications for the current Construction Specifications Institute format.</li> <li>Exhibit an understanding of construction and finish materials.</li> <li>Create finish color boards.</li> <li>Identify materials shown in a set of construction drawings.</li> <li>Prepare office documents using Word software.</li> <li>Research materials using Sweets catalog.</li> <li>Research materials using the internet.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.