ARCH2223 - Architectural Drafting Service Learning

Credits:	4 (0/0/4)
Description:	This course provides the opportunity for Architectural Drafting and Design program students to work on real-life projects. These projects combine learning objectives with community service to provide a pragmatic, progressive learning experience while meeting societal needs.
Prerequisites:	• ARCH2226
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Understand problems in a more complex way, including their underlying issues. 2. Develop curiosity and motivation to imagine alternative solutions. 3. Learn how to work collaboratively on real problems. 4. Observe how decisions are made and how they can impact people's lives. 5. Develop autonomy and independence from faculty. 6. Use a variety of ways to articulate information (written, verbal, art, media, etc.). 7. Identify and analyze the composition of the off-campus community, including social, cultural, demographic, lifestyle, religious and other factors. 8. Develop an improved attitude toward involvement. 9. Prepare to make career decisions. 10. Recognize the importance of communication. 11. Be exposed to different opinions and points of view. 12. Increase complex problem-solving ability. 13. Develop industry skills per an advisory board. 14. Demonstrate initiative and punctuality. 15. Perform work to company standards. 16. Exhibit dependability. 17. Display professional appearance.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.