

ARCH2223 - Architectural Drafting Service Learning

Credits:	4 (0/0/4)
Description:	This course provides the opportunity for Architectural Drafting and Design program students to work on real-life projects. These projects combine learning objectives with community service to provide a pragmatic, progressive learning experience while meeting societal needs.
Prerequisites:	• ARCH2226
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Understand problems in a more complex way, including their underlying issues.</li> <li>Develop curiosity and motivation to imagine alternative solutions.</li> <li>Learn how to work collaboratively on real problems.</li> <li>Observe how decisions are made and how they can impact people's lives.</li> <li>Develop autonomy and independence from faculty.</li> <li>Use a variety of ways to articulate information (written, verbal, art, media, etc.).</li> <li>Identify and analyze the composition of the off-campus community, including social, cultural, demographic, lifestyle, religious and other factors.</li> <li>Develop an improved attitude toward involvement.</li> <li>Prepare to make career decisions.</li> <li>Recognize the importance of communication.</li> <li>Be exposed to different opinions and points of view.</li> <li>Increase complex problem-solving ability.</li> <li>Develop industry skills per an advisory board.</li> <li>Demonstrate initiative and punctuality.</li> <li>Perform work to company standards.</li> <li>Exhibit dependability.</li> <li>Display professional appearance.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.