

ARCH2228 - Architectural Internship

Credits:	4 (0/0/4)
Description:	This course provides the student with an occupational experience in the architectural design and construction field. Each internship is an individualized experience.
Prerequisites:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• CADD1000</li><li>• ENGT1134</li></ul>
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Demonstrate professional work behavior and communication.</li><li>2. Analyze the relationship between building systems in coordination with architectural drawings.</li><li>3. Create and present relevant design concepts.</li><li>4. Perform work to company standards.</li><li>5. Exhibit independent working ability.</li><li>6. Exhibit dependability.</li><li>7. Display professional appearance.</li><li>8. Apply proper use of industry terminology and materials.</li><li>9. Apply professional interpersonal skills.</li><li>10. Demonstrate initiative and punctuality.</li><li>11. Develop industry skills per internship advising plan.</li><li>12. Manage internship paperwork.</li></ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.