

CONM2213 - Safety Management

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course includes construction management applications in the areas of safety and health. Students will have an opportunity to earn OSHA 30-hour authorization for successful course completion.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	 Explore history of health/safety movement. Investigate workers' compensation programs/practices. Examine general OSHA rules/regulations. Identify means for implementation of workplace safety assessments. Examine Right to Know and Hazard Communication. Examine OSHA's Fall Protection rules/regulations. Evaluate safety/health management responsibilities. Understand employer requirements for safe jobsites. Identify various types of construction safety/health hazards and means of hazard mitigation. Determine the proper application and use for Personal Protective Equipment (PPE).
MnTC goal areas:	None

^{*}Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.