

ECHO2210 - Adult Echocardiography Clinical II

Credits:	10 (0/0/10)
Description:	This course provides a continued supervised clinical practicum, increasing proficiency in diagnosing advanced cardiovascular disease. The final goal of this course is to achieve the competency level required to work as an entry-level cardiac sonographer.
Prerequisites:	• ECHO2200
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Develop a working knowledge of an echocardiography department's functions, goals and equipment.</li> <li>Apply didactic and clinical knowledge and become familiar with the protocols of the clinical site.</li> <li>Demonstrate how to communicate on a basic, professional level with healthcare staff and patients.</li> <li>Demonstrate the critical thinking, cognitive and psychomotor skills required for clinical work.</li> <li>Demonstrate basic patient care skills necessary to be a competent healthcare provider.</li> <li>Demonstrate how to care for laboratory equipment.</li> <li>Demonstrate the role of echocardiography in patient diagnosis and management.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.