

EDUC1113 - Career and Life Planning

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course is designed to assist students in developing career exploration skills and strategies through self-exploration, cultural perceptions, and career and college major identification. Students will identify potential major and career possibilities.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Utilize personality profiles, interest inventories, and personality instruments. 2. Appraise major and career choices utilizing college library and Career Center resources. 3. Analyze informational interviewing with persons employed in the student's areas of interest. 4. Synthesize discussions concerning historical, cultural, and/or societal influences on career decision choices. 5. Evaluate decision making styles and how to set realistic goals.
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.