

EDUC1113 - Career and Life Planning

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course is designed to assist students in developing career exploration skills and strategies through self-exploration, cultural perceptions, and career and college major identification. Students will identify potential major and career possibilities.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Utilize personality profiles, interest inventories, and personality instruments.</li> <li>2. Appraise major and career choices utilizing college library and Career Center resources.</li> <li>3. Analyze informational interviewing with persons employed in the student's areas of interest.</li> <li>4. Synthesize discussions concerning historical, cultural, and/or societal influences on career decision choices.</li> <li>5. Evaluate decision making styles and how to set realistic goals.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.