

ELEC1100 - Electrical Safety

Credits:	1 (1/0/0)
Description:	This course provides students with an understanding of occupational safety practices and requirements associated with working in the electrical industry. It also covers the purpose and enforcement of general safety rules.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Identify electrical hazards. 2. Explain lockout and tagout procedures. 3. Identify personal protective equipment. 4. Explain general safety rules.
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.