

ELEC2248 - Code Applications

|                    |  |
|--------------------|--|
| Credits:           | 2 (1/1/0)  |
| Description:       | This course applies the principles of the National Electrical Code to job-specific situations.   |
| Prerequisites:     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ELEC1104</li> <li>• ELEC1114</li> </ul>   |
| Corequisites:      |  |
| Pre/Corequisites*: |  |
| Competencies:      | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Demonstrate electrical safety.</li> <li>2. Interpret the National Electrical Code.</li> <li>3. Interpret blueprints.</li> <li>4. Calculate electrical quantities.</li> <li>5. Perform NEC calculations.</li> <li>6. Describe behavior consistent with industry expectations.</li> <li>7. Design and lay out electrical systems and circuits.</li> <li>8. Discuss state electrical requirements.</li> <li>9. Apply principles necessary to the electrical field.</li> </ol> |
| MnTC goal areas:   | None   |

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.