

ELEC2248 - Code Applications

Credits:	2 (1/1/0)
Description:	This course applies the principles of the National Electrical Code to job-specific situations.
Prerequisites:	• ELEC1104 • ELEC1114
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Demonstrate electrical safety.</li> <li>Interpret the National Electrical Code.</li> <li>Interpret blueprints.</li> <li>Calculate electrical quantities.</li> <li>Perform NEC calculations.</li> <li>Describe behavior consistent with industry expectations.</li> <li>Design and lay out electrical systems and circuits.</li> <li>Discuss state electrical requirements.</li> <li>Apply principles necessary to the electrical field.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.