FIRE2030 - Fire Instructor I

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course introduces students to the various objectives of the National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 1041 Fire Service Instructor Professional Qualifications 2009 Edition for state certification for Fire Instructor I. This will prepare the student to function at the minimum level of training for a fire service instructor.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Demonstrate the presentation of a prepared lesson plan. 2. Choose course materials so that the lesson plan, materials, resources, and equipment needed to deliver the lesson properly are obtained. 3. Analyze the audience, teaching environment, and situation to adapt the instructional material in a way that obtains the best reception among the most students. 4. Arrange the classroom or training area to design the best possible learning environment through the reduction of distractions and enhancement of supporting audiovisual tools. 5. Set up and demonstrate the use of audiovisual tools commensurate with those available for teaching and recommended by the prepared lesson plan. 6. Demonstrate the administration of testing process to measure retention, grade tests accurately, and provide constructive feedback to assist in the learning process.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.