HITM1151 - Introduction to Health Information Management

| | |
|---|---|
| Credits: | 3 (3/0/0) |
| Description: | This course is an introduction to the delivery of healthcare in the United States and the health information management profession. |
| Prerequisites: | |
| Corequisites: | |
| Pre/Corequisites*: | |
| Competencies: | 1. Recognize the different levels of healthcare delivery.2. Describe the health information management profession.3. Recognize the various roles and scope of the healthcare interprofessional team.4. Differentiate the scope of health professionals and healthcare services in various settings.5. Identify the content of the health record for various types and sizes of health organizations.6. Identify the content of the health record and documentation for virtual environments.7. Utilize electronic health record software.8. Describe the health information workflow of a patient encounter.9. Understand and apply the American Health Information Management Association Code of Ethics.10. Advocate for health information services and resources that benefit patients, the organization and the population. |
| MnTC goal areas: | None |

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.