

HITM1151 - Introduction to Health Information Management

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course is an introduction to the delivery of healthcare in the United States and the health information management profession.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Recognize the different levels of healthcare delivery.</li><li>2. Describe the health information management profession.</li><li>3. Recognize the various roles and scope of the healthcare interprofessional team.</li><li>4. Differentiate the scope of health professionals and healthcare services in various settings.</li><li>5. Identify the content of the health record for various types and sizes of health organizations.</li><li>6. Identify the content of the health record and documentation for virtual environments.</li><li>7. Utilize electronic health record software.</li><li>8. Describe the health information workflow of a patient encounter.</li><li>9. Understand and apply the American Health Information Management Association Code of Ethics.</li><li>10. Advocate for health information services and resources that benefit patients, the organization and the population.</li></ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.