

HITM1151 - Introduction to Health Information Management

| Credits:           | 3 (3/0/0)   |
|--------------------|---|
| Description:       | This course is an introduction to the delivery of healthcare in the United States and the health information management profession.   |
| Prerequisites:     |   |
| Corequisites:      |   |
| Pre/Corequisites*: |   |
| Competencies:      | <ol> <li>Recognize the different levels of healthcare delivery.</li> <li>Describe the health information management profession.</li> <li>Recognize the various roles and scope of the healthcare interprofessional team.</li> <li>Differentiate the scope of health professionals and healthcare services in various settings.</li> <li>Identify the content of the health record for various types and sizes of health organizations.</li> <li>Identify the content of the health record and documentation for virtual environments.</li> <li>Utilize electronic health record software.</li> <li>Describe the health information workflow of a patient encounter.</li> <li>Understand and apply the American Health Information Management Association Code of Ethics.</li> <li>Advocate for health information services and resources that benefit patients, the organization and the population.</li> </ol> |
| MnTC goal areas:   | None  |

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.