IPP2213 - Topics in Interpreting

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course focuses on addressing recently identified trends, skills and knowledge relevant to the development of interpreting students. The course content consists of introducing special topics in the area of interpreting, including team interpreting, religion, medical, mental health, deaf/blind, video remote, and video relay interpreting. This course also examines current certification exams and assessments.
Prerequisites:	• IPP1111
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Demonstrate the ability to prepare for a variety of interpreting assignments. 2. Explain the duties of a team interpreter. 3. Identify the current national evaluation and certification processes for interpreters. 4. Illustrate ways interpreters function in specific settings and with specific populations. 5. Describe issues that are currently relevant to the field of interpreting and to the Deaf community. 6. Demonstrate understanding of the need for continuing education as a professional interpreter. 7. Recognize current trends within the interpreting profession. 8. Identify the differences between video remote and video relay interpreting. 9. Illustrate various service models of interpreting.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.