IPP2214 - Intro to Ethics and Decision-Making for Interpreters

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	The interpreting profession requires interpreters to respond to a wide range of difficult situations in an ethical manner. This course introduces ethical constructs within the field of interpreting and focuses on ethical dilemmas that require interpreters to use decision-making processes in a variety of settings. Students learn strategies for developing multiple approaches to ethical scenarios along with guiding principles and values of the interpreting field.
Prerequisites:	• IPP1111
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Identify ethical standards and practices for ASL interpreters. 2. Recognize the need for impartiality in interpreting situations. 3. Discuss a variety of ethical decision-making strategies. 4. Analyze ethical dilemmas that interpreters may encounter while working. 5. Identify the influencing factors faced in ethical scenarios. 6. Recognize potential impacts created by ethical decisions. 7. Examine guiding principles and values of the interpreting field. 8. Identify the environmental demands within interpreting situations. 9. Evaluate personal, professional, and cultural values in various ethical scenarios.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.