MLT2232 - Clinical Hematology and Coagulation

Credits:	3 (0/3/0)
Description:	This is a clinical experience course related to the performance of hematology and coagulation tests under the supervision of laboratory professionals at an affiliate laboratory. This course provides further investigation and study of the methods and techniques related to hematology and coagulation tests.
Prerequisites:	• MLT2350
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	1. Demonstrate proper laboratory safety techniques and procedures. 2. Evaluate quality assurance and quality control as they pertain to hematology and coagulation tests. 3. Perform maintenance and calibration on hematology and coagulation analyzers and equipment. 4. Perform hematology and coagulation laboratory procedures. 5. Troubleshoot testing errors and unexpected test results. 6. Evaluate specimens as acceptable or unacceptable for analysis. 7. Correlate hematology and coagulation patient test results and theories with states of health and disease. 8. Comply with course and college policies and procedures.
MnTC goal areas:	None

Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*

© 2026 Minnesota State Community and Technical College.
We reserve the right to periodically update information without notice.
The information in this publication should not be regarded as contractual in nature.