

PARA1112 - Legal Ethics for the Paralegal

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course covers the attorney-client privilege as it relates to paralegals, unauthorized practice of law, regulation of paralegals, ethical codes and rules.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Describe role of paralegal ethics.</li><li>2. Describe what constitutes the unauthorized practice of law.</li><li>3. Analyze ethical duty to confidentiality.</li><li>4. Identify conflict of interest.</li><li>5. Describe competent representation.</li><li>6. Define fiduciary duty regarding safekeeping of client funds.</li><li>7. Analyze duty to report misconduct.</li><li>8. Describe appropriate circumstances for law firm advertising.</li><li>9. Advocate moral concepts of decision making by businesses.</li><li>10. Analyze role of legal ethics as it relates to technology.</li></ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

**Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*