

PDEV1113 - Career Life Planning

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course is designed to assist students in developing career exploration skills and strategies through self-exploration, cultural perceptions, and career and major identification. Students will identify major/career possibilities.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Conduct a self-assessment using personality profiles, interest inventories and personality instruments.</li><li>2. Appraise major and career choices utilizing career-related resources.</li><li>3. Conduct informational interviews with persons employed in student's areas of interest.</li><li>4. Synthesize discussion concerning historical/cultural/societal influences on career decision choices.</li><li>5. Evaluate decision making styles and setting realistic goals.</li><li>6. Create a career profile that includes personality traits, interests and values clarifications.</li></ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

**Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.*