

PDEV1113 - Career Life Planning

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course is designed to assist students in developing career exploration skills and strategies through self-exploration, cultural perceptions, and career and major identification. Students will identify major/career possibilities.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	 Conduct a self-assessment using personality profiles, interest inventories and personality instruments. Appraise major and career choices utilizing career-related resources. Conduct informational interviews with persons employed in student's areas of interest. Synthesize discussion concerning historical/cultural/societal influences on career decision choices. Evaluate decision making styles and setting realistic goals. Create a career profile that includes personality traits, interests and values clarifications.
MnTC goal areas:	None

^{*}Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.