

PDEV1114 - Career Life Planning

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course is designed to assist students in developing career exploration skills and strategies through self-exploration, cultural perceptions, and career and major identification. Students identify major/career possibilities. This course helps students develop practical strategies for success in college and life. Students engage in interactive assignments to explore, identify and clarify goals, and will develop a better understanding of themselves by analyzing personal choices.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Conduct a self-assessment using personality profiles, interest inventories and personality instruments.</li> <li>2. Appraise major and career choices utilizing career-related resources.</li> <li>3. Conduct informational interviews with people employed in student's areas of interest.</li> <li>4. Synthesize discussion concerning historical/cultural/societal influences on career decision choices.</li> <li>5. Evaluate decision-making styles and setting realistic goals.</li> <li>6. Create a career profile that includes personality traits, interests and values clarifications.</li> <li>7. Establish goals and identify the appropriate resources to succeed in reaching those goals.</li> <li>8. Explore and document the academic and personal skills necessary to succeed in college as a self-directed learner.</li> <li>9. Articulate the connection between personal, professional and academic priorities and goals.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.