

PLBG1123 - Plumbing Code I

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	This course introduces and familiarizes students with the Minnesota Plumbing Code and the North Dakota Plumbing Code. Definitions and miscellaneous statutes related to the plumbing codes will be covered.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. Describe the layout of the Minnesota Plumbing Code book and the North Dakota Plumbing Code book.</li><li>2. Explain the basic content of the Minnesota and North Dakota Plumbing Codes and the differences in the content.</li><li>3. Recall and apply the definitions from the Minnesota and North Dakota Plumbing Codes.</li><li>4. Compare the definitions in the Minnesota Plumbing Code with the definitions in the North Dakota Plumbing Code.</li><li>5. Compare and contrast statutes in the Minnesota Plumbing Code with those in the North Dakota Plumbing Code.</li><li>6. Describe the effect of the Minnesota miscellaneous statutes on the plumbing industry in Minnesota.</li><li>7. Describe the tier of authority of plumbing officials and licensed plumbers in both Minnesota and North Dakota.</li><li>8. Describe the types of licenses in the plumbing field and the requirements for obtaining them in Minnesota and North Dakota.</li><li>9. Compare and contrast the codes of Minnesota and North Dakota.</li></ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.