

CONM2213 - Safety Management

Credits:	2 (2/0/0)
Description:	This course includes construction management applications in the areas of safety and health. Students will have an opportunity to earn OSHA 30-hour authorization for successful course completion.
Prerequisites:
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Explore history of health/safety movement.</li> <li>2. Investigate workers' compensation programs/practices.</li> <li>3. Examine general OSHA rules/regulations.</li> <li>4. Identify means for implementation of workplace safety assessments.</li> <li>5. Examine Right to Know and Hazard Communication.</li> <li>6. Examine OSHA's Fall Protection rules/regulations.</li> <li>7. Evaluate safety/health management responsibilities.</li> <li>8. Understand employer requirements for safe jobsites.</li> <li>9. Identify various types of construction safety/health hazards and means of hazard mitigation.</li> <li>10. Determine the proper application and use for Personal Protective Equipment (PPE).</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.