

ENTR1301 - Entrepreneurship III: Running and Growing Your Business

Credits:	3 (3/0/0)
Description:	In this course, students who are operating a business or have a solid business model learn how to build a firm foundation for running and growing their business. Students develop a detailed business plan as well as present and pitch a business plan to entrepreneurial professionals. The focus of the course is on the financial, marketing and operational functions within a business needed for sustained growth and success.
Prerequisites:	• ENTR1101 • ENTR1201
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	 Explain the elements that contribute to company growth. Demonstrate responsibility, innovation and initiative in a demanding business setting. Outline key components of a business plan. Determine capital equipment needs and other start-up costs. Develop marketing and sales strategies. Create financial projections to prepare for business growth or loss. Develop a pro-forma balance sheet, income statement and cash budget. Perform a business plan presentation. Create a go-to-market strategy.
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.