

HRES2252 - Human Resource Systems

Credits:	2 (1/1/0)
Description:	This capstone course reviews and assesses the principles covered in the Human Resource program through simulated activities related to program outcomes.
Prerequisites:	Advisor Approval
Corequisites:
Pre/Corequisites*:
Competencies:	<ol> <li>Relate Human Resource program outcomes to workplace situations.</li> <li>Understand and apply applicable federal, state and local employment regulations and record-keeping requirements to human resource functions.</li> <li>Demonstrate and apply effective communication skills in oral and written forms applied to core human resource functions.</li> <li>Research and construct ethical policies and procedures related to core human resource functions.</li> <li>Function effectively in a diverse global business community.</li> <li>Understand the strategic impact that human resources has within the business environment.</li> <li>Understand and utilize technology for business and human resource applications.</li> <li>Utilize critical thinking skills to analyze and solve human resource-related problems and situations.</li> </ol>
MnTC goal areas:	None

*Can be taking as a Prerequisite or Corequisite.