Options for Students Following Sexual Violence, Partner Violence, Stalking, or Sexual Harassment

Do you want to tell someone?

YES

Now you can explore which options and resources seem best for you.

Support can include academic flexibility, counseling, or other resources to facilitate self-care and healing. See the Title IX office. 218-299-6522 Minnesota.edu/title-9

CONFIDENTIAL

M State’s Counseling Services
Counselors can meet with you, help you explore your options, or refer you to off-campus therapists. Reports to Title IX Office only if imminent risk or harm to self or others. https://www.mnstate.edu/student-support/personal-counseling

ANONYMOUS

Rape and Abuse Crisis Center
Provides confidential and free crisis intervention, advocacy, counseling, and education. RACC has no obligation to report to M State’s Title IX Office. Advocates are available 24/7 through RACC’s Crisis Line: • 800.344.7273

PRIVATE

Title IX Office
Coordinates support. Facilitates academic flexibility or accommodations. Implements safety measures. Helps students understand procedural options and assists those pursuing M State grievance process. Support measures can be put into place without a formal complaint. Call 218-299-6522 or go to Minnesota.edu/title-9

REPORTING

Reporting could include filing a complaint under M State Title IX grievance procedures, reporting to law enforcement, or both.

M State

Title IX Office
Provides information about and helps navigate the Title IX process. You may speak to the Title IX Office about your options without disclosing all or any details, including the name of the accused. The next steps can be informal or formal. It is your choice. 218-299-6522

NO

Only you can make this decision. Everyone processes experiences differently. Resources and support are always available and you can change your mind at any point.

POLICE

Call 911 to seek help and/or report to law enforcement. Reporting to M State does not report it to law enforcement for criminal proceedings.

Rape and Abuse Crisis Center – Advocates are available 24/7 to accompany you to hospital for evidence preservation exam. Support navigating law enforcement process. • 800.344.7273

In an emergency, please call 911

MINNESOTA.EDU/TITLE-9